

Tullahoma Campaign Sesquicentennial Events

Saturday, June 29, South Jackson Civic Center

Location
Time	Front Lawn / Patio	South Lawn	Inside South Jackson Civic Center
9:00	Flag Raised at South Jackson – Girl Scout Troop 2163 Open all Day: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Craft Demonstrations • Maps of Tullahoma Campaign Display • Concession Stands 	Colors posted in Reenactment Camp and Camp opens to public Open all Day: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reenactor Camp • Headquarters and Medical Tents 	Open all Day: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Civil War Artifacts Display - in the front reception rooms • in the Mitchell Museum - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ "Trains of Time", a new working model Railroad ○ "The Battle of Hoovers Gap", a Folk Art diorama
9:30		Infantry Drill
10:00		Artillery Demonstration
10:30			The play, "Soldier, Come Home" – duration one hour in the Warren Auditorium
11:30	Dance Demonstration by the Flat Creek Contra Dancers		Sara Crawford Young - performances until 3:30 pm in the Mitchell Museum.
12:00		Infantry Drill
12:30			UDC Fashion Show – duration one hour in the Warren Auditorium
1:30	Dance Demonstration by the Flat Creek Contra Dancers
2:00		Artillery Demonstration
2:30			The play, "Soldier, Come Home" – duration one hour in the Warren Auditorium
4:00		Skirmish
5:00	Flag Lowered at South Jackson – Boy Scout Troop 402	Colors Retired at Reenactor Camp
5:30			Concert by the Tennessee Fiddle Orchestra , in the Warren Auditorium